Invitation ~

LOUADA
MARSHALL

To you as Shorthorn breeders and friends we extend a hearty invitation to inspect our seventh annual offering which we proudly list in this catalogue. Although reduced in numbers as a result of the loss of some of our former consignors, this group of breeders has made a special effort to present an even stronger offering than heretofore by contributing animals which were to have gone into their own breeding herds.

During the past year, contributors to this sale have carried off a major share of the awards at the leading shows in Canada and the United States. In the recent International Congress show at Chicago these herds were largely responsible for setting the average of the Canadian consignment at such a high level. In that sale the Canadian bull average of $2090. was more than 57% above the general bull average, and the Canadian female average of $1570. more than 44% above the general female average. Of further interest was the presence of Canadian bloodlines in most of the highest selling bulls.

The animals herein catalogued represent the best bloodlines available in Canada, Great Britain and the United States. With the U.S. dollar worth an extra 4 to 5 per cent in Canada at the present time, this should prove an attractive field for U.S. breeders seeking profitable investments.

Whether or not you plan to be a purchaser, you are cordially invited to attend the sale and inspect the offering.
